

Chancel Window - Kit Stewart Chapel Calvary Presbyterian Church, San Francisco

The Celtic Cross, central symbol of the United Presbyterian Church's seal, is the dominant figure in the large center window in the chancel. The circle of eternity has been emphasized for its symbolic significance. Note that the free-flow line in ruby is key to the entire window plan, suggesting freedom, eternity and the ever-active thought in the church today.

62,283

Photo by Marshall L. Schultz, S. F.

postcard

place
stamp
here